JTDF SKILL SCHOOL

WHAT IS THE SKILL SCHOOL

Skill School is a program designed to expand a player's mental and physical soccer abilities. The curriculum is comprised of small group soccer skills training. The small group training is used to help players on a more individualized basis to learn and improve technical skills they may not get in their large group practices. The soccer specific fitness component of the program will improve player's fitness, agility and speed. The program is intense, but fun.

SKILL SCHOOL DIRECTOR

JT Dorsey graduated from Loyola College in Maryland, where he obtained his degree in Education and my certification in Special Education. He played professional soccer for 9 years with several different clubs, including the Delaware Wizards, the Hershey Wildcats, the Connecticut Wolves, the Reading Rage, and the Harrisburg City Islanders. He has coached youth at the Premiere Club level and in ODP programs for the past 11 years. He holds a "C" license

COACHING STAFF

Skill School staff will be highly qualified coaches who are either current professional, former professional players or coaches who hold at least a "C" license. Some college or high school players may be used as Mentor Coaches to the youth who are in the program.

I give permission for my child to participate in all Skill School activities. He/she is in good health and may participate in normal program activities unless I specify otherwise to the JT Dorsey Foundation staff. I agree not to hold the JTDF and or the facility responsible for injuries to my child's person and/or property while participating in the program and or any activities associated with it. In case of medical emergency, I authorize the staff of the JTDF to seek emergency care for my child. I understand that medical information and personal data will be used in programs, when necessary, to protect my child's well being, but will be kept confidential by the JTDF staff.
